The Irish Language is most frequently spoken in the west of Ireland and is the first Language of many people living in that area known as “ An Ghaeltach”. Simple Greetings and sayings are very common everywhere and of course the Irish toast “Slainte” is understood by all, as is our Irish Welcome “ Failte”

☘ Ireland can't be seen alone by our cities but in its country side among its people. ☘

These are my recommendation, please make sure there on your list and do ask me any questions you may have.

Welcome to my Area – Ballyhoura (bally-how-are-u) Country. Here you will traverse a landscape rich in Geology, Archaeology and wildlife. Ballyhoura country offers spectacular walking in Ancient and unspoilt areas of east Limerick and north Cork and accounts for 10% of Irelands national looped walks, has Europe's largest mountain bike park and is one of four road cycling hubs in Ireland.

Bruff is situated in the beautiful Golden Vale & Lough Gur district. One such famous emigrant born in Bruff in 1823 was Thomas Fitzgerald Great grandfather to JFK on his mother's side. He was a farmer and lived in a rural part of the parish. The Thomas Fitzgerald Centre, formerly the old Courthouse was officially dedicated in memory of Thomas Fitzgerald on the 21st of June 2013 by Caroline Kennedy, daughter of President John Fitzgerald Kennedy. Every generation of the Fitzgerald Kennedy family have visited their ancestral home in Bruff. The Centre now displays an array of photographs, including some from the visit of President John Fitzgerald Kennedy to Ireland in 1963, the visit of Caroline Kennedy to Bruff in 2013, and also includes photographs of various members of the Fitzgerald Kennedy Family. The Centre is also home to a hand painted mural depicting the Fitzgerald family tree, the only one of its type in the world.

Old Irish Ways – Tells the story from 1900's with Denis extensive exhibits through the times.

Lough Gur is at the heart of a remarkable archaeological landscape featuring sites that represent every major period of human history in Ireland. Physical evidence of occupation from the Neolithic, Bronze Age, Iron Age, Early Christian, Medieval, Early Modern and Modern eras has been found in the immediate vicinity. It is home to Ireland's largest and oldest stone circle. At one point in time it was also home to the largest concentration of Giant Irish Deer in Europe. Lough Gur has breath taking scenery along with a fairy trail and tree trail for younger and young at heart visitors. The Heritage Centre at Lough Gur displays the rich heritage of Lough Gur through interactive multimedia exhibitions that brings to life over 6,000 of archaeology and history. Fully trained and qualified guides are also on hand to answer all of your questions.
